HOLIDAY INN CLUB VACATIONS BRAND GROWS TO SECOND LARGEST PRIVATE COMPANY IN CENTRAL FLORIDA

ORLANDO, FLA. (September 28, 2017) – Orange Lake Resorts, home to the Holiday Inn Club Vacations[®] brand, recently was recognized by the Orlando Business Journal as the second largest privately held company in Central Florida as part of the publication's Golden 100 Awards ceremony. Kemmons Wilson began the company in 1982 when he opened Orange Lake Resort in Kissimmee, Florida. Today the company has grown to 26 resorts in 12 states with more than 7,600 villas and 4,600 employees.

“This is great recognition of the work our team members are doing every day,” said Tom Nelson, President and CEO of Orange Lake Resorts. “We have set ourselves on a path of aggressive growth and continue to expand our footprint, teams and resort network. Our team has done an extraordinary job to create this success, and I see many great things ahead for our company and our valued team members.”

Orlando Business Journal's Golden 100 celebrates the top privately held companies in Central Florida by ranking the entrants based on net revenues. In 2016, Holiday Inn Club Vacations recorded net revenues of $706 million; a 19% increase over 2015. Additionally, the company doubled in size to 26 resorts with the acquisition of Silverleaf Resorts in 2015.
