ORLANDO, FLA. (April 2, 2015) – Holiday Inn Club Vacations® donated $100,000 to Give Kids The World® Village in Kissimmee during a recent preview tour of the new 53,000-square-foot Towne Hall currently under construction.

The donation was made by Chairman of the Board Spence Wilson, Board Member Spence Wilson, Jr., and CEO Don Harrill of Holiday Inn Club Vacations to Give Kids The World President Pamela Landwirth. Don Harrill said, “Our company is proud to continue to build on our long relationship with Give Kids The World, which holds a special place close to the heart of our organization. It continues a remarkable legacy of caring that makes such a difference in the lives of many wonderful children and their families.”

“It’s been a journey of love as more than 135,000 wish children and their families have come to the Village to experience the happiness that inspires hope since our beginnings in 1986, and Holiday Inn Club Vacations has been an unwavering partner,” added Pamela Landwirth of Give Kids The World. “Their ongoing love and support inspires us to continue to do everything we can to give so many deserving families a week of relaxation, fun and memories that will last forever.”
