HENDERSON, INC. BREAKS GROUND ON COLONIAL CROSSINGS RESORT EXPANSION

Resort to join the Holiday Inn Club Vacations® brand in early 2014

WILLIAMSBURG, VA (October 9, 2013) – To help kick-off their progress, Henderson, Inc. held a groundbreaking ceremony on October 9 to mark the beginning of the expansion for the new Colonial Crossings Resort. This resort was recently acquired by timeshare resort developer Orange Lake Resorts, who owns and operates ten Holiday Inn Club Vacations® resorts, with plans to add Colonial Crossings as their 11th branded location in early 2014.

Owners Orange Lake Resorts have recently become a part of our growing tourism industry and are excited to offer family-friendly vacation resort option to tourists available for nightly rentals or timeshare ownership. The resort's general manager Bill Murphy, York County EDA Director Jim Noel, York County Board of Supervisors Chairman Walt Zaremba and Henderson, Inc. Vice President Leslie Schultz were on hand to help celebrate the occasion. Jim Noel noted "We are thrilled to have this new investment in the County and very pleased that this work has been awarded to a County business".

Colonial Crossings Resort is located eight miles from downtown Williamsburg, on Lightfoot Road in York County. Slated for completion next spring, their new 11,205 SF, one-story sales building was designed by L2 Studios of Orlando, Florida and will consist of open office areas for sales associates, a kids club and on outdoor patio area overlooking a pond.

Orange Lake Resorts CEO Don Harrill says, "Our plan for the Holiday Inn Club Vacations brand has been to grow to iconic American locations where families go to spend quality time together. This resort in historic Williamsburg is a great fit, offering richness in culture and area attractions for every age and interest. Henderson, Inc. have been great partners to move our construction forward for this resort and enhance our guest experience—and they’ve been so welcoming to us in this local community.”

Henderson, Inc. is a Williamsburg, Virginia based, Class A bonded contractor founded in 1957 with over 56 years of general contracting and construction experience in the Hampton Roads area and the Mid-Atlantic Region. Henderson specializes in new construction, renovations, additions, utilities, and site development.
